Success Stories

A Few of our Spring Success Stories

ARBITRATION

We represented a Private Indonesian Transportation Company before the National Board of Arbitration (BANI) against a Regional-Owned Enterprises (BUMD) of Jakarta Provincial Government. The dispute arose from an agreement conducted for the Operator Bus Rapid Transit (BPT). The panel of arbitrators granted our client's request. Our client only had to pay 2% from the original claim of IDR 92 Billion.

COMMERCIAL DISPUTES

Our Clients trusted us in handling commercial disputes in various industries. We had assisted clients from local companies, PMA companies, to the biggest telecommunication provider in Indonesia. Our services range from the district court to Supreme Court, industrial court as well as administrative court

CORPORATE

We represented and assisted clients related to several investment funds of some major investment companies in terms of Merger & Acquisition, Legal Due Diligence, drafting and reviewing commercial contracts, and establishing their business in Indonesia.

Fee Structure

BP Lawyers will determine the service fees subject to the nature of each matter, which can be hourly rates or other preferences of billing fee structure that the clients feel more suitable for their needs.

We believe in an open discussion with our clients regarding the expected and ongoing costs of a transaction matter as well as in helping clients to manage the costs and achieving their objectives.

The following are the most prevalent types of fee structure in BP Lawyers:

- Hourly Fee System
- Project Fee System
- Retainer Fee System

It is Important to note firstly that BP Lawyers has a record of evaluating and implementing alternative billing structures for complex transactional matters. Therefore, we can surpass theoretical discussion whether an alternative billing structure would be appropriate for our clients' matters.
